

NIGHTINGALE, PUBLIC HEALTH AND VICTORIAN SOCIETY
from the British Library, London
Parts 1-4

DETAILED LISTING

Part 1: Correspondence relating to the Crimea, India and Public Health Reform

43393-43403. NIGHTINGALE PAPERS. VOLS. 1-XI. Correspondence and papers of Florence Nightingale, O.M. 1907 (b. 1820, d. 1910). The remainder of this archive is now Add. MSS. 45750-45849 (Vols. XII-CXI) and 47714-47767 (Vols. CXII-CLXV). Some of the documents were printed by Sir Edward Tyas Cook, Life of Florence Nightingale, 2 vols., 1913; by Mrs Ida Beatrice O'Malley, Florence Nightingale, 1820-1856, 1931; and by Mrs Cecil Woodham-Smith, Florence Nightingale, 1950. As a result of the rearrangement made subsequent to the acquisition of Add. MSS. 47714-47767, the description of the present volumes in Brit.Mus.Quart.,vii, 1932-1933,p. 121, is no longer correct. Many original letters from Florence Nightingale will be found in these volumes; included also are typewritten copies of documents selected from archives elsewhere. Eleven volumes. Folio, except 43403, which is octavo. The names of all the writers are given in the Index to this Catalogue. Presented by the Executors of Florence Nightingale.

43393-43395. NIGHTINGALE PAPERS. Vols. I-III (ff. 266, 310, 342). REEL 64

THE NIGHTINGALE PAPERS

Third Series (Vols. CXII-CLXV)

The final section (Vols. CXII-CLXV) of the correspondence and papers of Florence Nightingale, O.M. 1907 (b. 1820, d. 1910), supplementary to the two other series, viz. Add. MSS. 43393-43403 (Vols. I-XI) and 45750-45849 (Vols. XII-CXI) which have been described in earlier Catalogues. Some of the documents in this collection (which relates chiefly to the administration of the Nightingale Fund and the foundation of the Training School for Nurses in St Thomas's Hospital) were printed by Sir Edward Tyas Cook in his Life of Florence Nightingale, 1913, and also by Mrs Cecil Woodham-Smith in Florence Nightingale, 1950. Some original letters addressed by Florence Nightingale to her correspondents will be found in these volumes. Fifty-four volumes. Folio. Classified as follows:-

- A. Correspondence relating to the Nightingale Fund (47714-47728).
- B. Correspondence relating to St Thomas's Hospital (47729-47742).
- C. Correspondence with Hospital Matrons, etc. (47743-47752).
- D. Miscellaneous Correspondence (47753-47759).
- E. Miscellaneous Papers (47760-47767).

The names of all the writers are given in the Index to the present Catalogue. Presented (together with certain printed material now transferred to the Department of Printed Books) by Mrs Rosalind Vaughan Nash.

61991, 61992. MACGRIGOR LETTERS: letters from and relating to Alexander MacGrigor, M.D., army surgeon, addressed to his brother-in-law, Alexander Mennie of Huntly, Aberdeenshire; 1854-1866. Partly typewritten copies. The form of Add. 61992 suggests a planned publication for the whole collection, although it apparently remains unpublished. Purchased at Christie's, 4 Nov. 1981, lot 36. Paper. Two volumes.

61991. MACGRIGOR LETTERS. Vol. I (ff. 100). The original letters; 1854-1866. Chiefly relating to MacGrigor's service as Principal Medical Officer and later as Deputy Inspector of Hospitals at the Barrack Hospital at Scutari, 19 March 1854 to 12 Nov. 1855. Also included (ff. 58, 67) are two letters of [Jan.?], 21 Feb. 1855 from Florence Nightingale to MacGrigor. MacGrigor, who was greatly attracted to her, makes several references in his letters to her qualities and her work at Scutari. The letters (ff. 91-100) written after his death from cholera at Scutari in Nov. 1855 chiefly relate to Mennie's arrangements for the maintenance of MacGrigor's illegitimate
